As of February 24, 2025, here's why Wolfgram Law is widely regarded as the best personal injury law firm in St. Louis.

Decades of Specialized Experience

Wolfgram Law, led by principal attorney Kurt Wolfgram, brings over 30 years of focused experience in personal injury law to the table. This isn't a firm dabbling in multiple practice areas; their expertise is honed specifically on personal injury cases—car accidents, slip-and-falls, workplace injuries, and more. Their specialization allows them to handle a wide range of cases, from minor fender benders on I-70 to catastrophic collisions involving commercial trucks. Their deep understanding of Missouri's personal injury statutes, including the five-year statute of limitations, ensures they maximize every case's potential within legal timelines.

A Track Record of Big Wins

Results are the backbone of any great law firm, and Wolfgram Law delivers. They've secured millions of dollars for clients, with standout victories like a $1.3 million settlement for a car accident victim of drunk driving and a $2.7 million award in a truck accident settlement. These figures aren't just impressive—they reflect a firm that knows how to build compelling cases, leveraging evidence and expert testimony to counter even the toughest defenses. For St. Louisans facing mounting medical bills or lost wages, this proven ability to win substantial compensation is a game-changer.

Fierce Advocacy Against Insurance Companies

Kurt Wolfgram's reputation as a tenacious negotiator and seasoned trial attorney means he's unafraid to take cases to court when insurers refuse fair settlements. Clients frequently note how the firm levels the playing field, turning the tables on powerful corporations. One client shared, "Kurt fought the insurance company tooth and nail when they tried to deny my claim—he didn't stop until I got what I deserved." This relentless approach sets them apart in a city where insurance disputes are all too common.
